CABLE ADDRESS,
"AIDDECAMP, NEW YORK."

Nov. 9, 1887.

Judge A. W. Tourgee,

Dear Sir:--

Perhaps you recollect sending me a story that had appeared in a Jamestown paper, a Christmas story. Notwithstanding the fact that it has already appeared I should be glad to use it in my program for Christmas and pay you $50.00 for it.

I send you in a separate envelope all my recent announcements. I should be glad to negotiate with you for your new serial. I would like very much to see you. I expect to be in the western part of the statesome time this month; but if you expect to be in New York I shall be glad to make an appointment to see you.

Very sincerely yours,
