

Stone

Nov 9th 1887

My dear Judge It is 10. P. M. I did not have time to write you this day earlier than this.

It seems at this time that your negotiations in one respect have been realized, in that Mrs. Cook has given her consent.

Frank is defeated, and he surrenders, there would have been an attempt to utilize the victory in the interests of Palm, you will wonderfully assist in reducing Palm. Palm says Phil Cook went to the rescue of Luke in Phil's case it looks as though he is defeated by the Democratic element.

It seems to me that the party whom you look to Indiana, had many connections, some of whom seem they seem to spare money to send Cook to prevent her going to the devil & I think she can do more. On all points I think you can carry enough weight to make his election. over

My address from a well known Republican of Iowa, writes me that Iowa will be Lincoln of Alliance and make it,

I am in articles and letters received from Prof. Bates while in Chicago, Bates the author of the New History since receiving it I wrote Judge Brown & rec'd answer,

I am
Yours faithfully
H. A. H. Sanjour
J. Frank Diller

Received
Bates