EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.

[DICTATED.]

NEW YORK CITY, 11-12- 1887.

My dear Mr. Towner

I am back at my desk again but all my fingers recovered. I am a little lame on my left arm & hand one still in a strike they will do no work at all. I am steady but slowly recovering. Mr. Rice is out of town to St. Louis I will bring the matter you confide to me to his immediate attention. (He is at a few miles out of town)
 I will inform you of his decision. I feel advise you that the final decision does it all once - but but work with me.

Yours
 Jas. R. Pratt
