

Albion P. - ~~1871~~ 87.

---

My Dear Mr. Tourgee;

I write you in great haste, under the impression that you are managing the Judge's Lecture Course this winter. Some of our young folks are arranging for a Course of entertainments in January and February. I nominated the Judge for our Lecture. They asked "to write", and get his "bottom price". Personally I would want him to have the top price. But they are wanting to make the most of their venture, in a matter of Church repairs. I think the

2

Judge once named a special rate, independent of the Bureau.
(Lycum) (or Redpath)

He could put ~~the~~ <sup>in</sup> in, on a trip, East or West.

When he comes, you must accompany him.

Please answer at once,
as the Com' want to know
on Monday trip.

Yours as ever

J. S. Russell

What are the judges topics, or subjects this year. R