My dear Mrs -
Dear Emma -

I had interviewed Mr. Pullen before your letter was rec. saying to him that I desired a copy of "Pullen Ser" which he promised to furnish - he called upon him today. said he had read your letter and neglected to answer it. that he was under the impression that he would save the Exp Charges by purchasing in Cleveland in connection with other orders he was almost surely making. Of course I did not tell him that I had sent for you. neither do he definitely say whether he should order from you, or through Cleveland. Very truly
