My dear Wife:

Your sweet letter of the 14th met me here an hour ago. I have just telegraphed you to come down to Buffalo on Sat. night. I shall reach there at 3 oc Sunday morning and leave there at 9 oc. Monday morning.

Please write to my Scranton friend that I will be on Buckhannon a train leaving Buffalo at 9. Monday morning.

I could stop at Perinton at 2.04 and reach Mayville at 11 and leave there at 5 Monday but it would be hard and close and unsatisfactory.

You can say to Oscar that after consultation with my agent he decided to work the whole trip from his office and not put my agent on the matter at all this year. I think this is best considering all things. We changed the plan of operation a good deal and think it will probably give as good results.

If you go to B on Sat. night I will wake you up about 4. and we will have a happy quiet day.

The ladies who have the matter in charge here are in great tribulation because I will not give them Heroism as an "investment," and I expect some fun over it this evening. One of them has just left me, half-naked in tears - she & I were not myself - over the matter. We shall see whether I am giving the letter on a local editor.

Yours
Albin
