HENDERSON & PUTNAM,
DRUGGISTS AND BOOKSELLERS,
223 MAIN ST., COR. THIRD.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Dec 17, 1887.

Dear Mr Bourque,

The pkg. Button Ink sent us came duly and at this writing are nearly all sold. If the sale keeps on as indicated it will be well to send as many more on Monday or perhaps a greater number. What we have remaining will no doubt go to day and if we could receive new supply by first train no sales would be lost.

Trusting the outcome here will prove satisfactory to you
We remain,

Sincerely yours,

Henderson & Putnam.
