

3184

Organized 1869

The Redpath Lyceum Bureau.

Agency for the principal literary & musical celebrities.

Offices.

Boston, 120 Tremont St.

Chicago, Tribune Building.

Boston Dec 23rd 1887

Mrs. E. H. Tourgee -

Dear Madam.

We are very glad indeed to hear from you with check for balance due the Bureau & to learn that Judge Tourgee is doing well this season, on the platform. We have made several dates for him already. Jan'y 31st Feb'y 2-3 & 6th & hope to get others by means of special letters, - although correspondence is by no means effective. With regard to our charge for mailing circulars, we can see no injustice in it whatever. The lecturer has the use of our list free of charge & all we get, is a commission on what he receives. (over.)

It certainly does not belong to the agent to pay for the circulars sent out. We think our liability ends with our regular office expenses.

As to the charge of 15%, it may be higher than other agents, who do not have any outside expenses whatever. We are sure of one thing; we cannot do business at the old rate & make a living.

Yours with regards
J.