

A.W.T. PAPERS 1887

CHAUTAUQUA COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY 2013

The Tribune-Republican,

DAILY AND WEEKLY.

W. R. ANDREWS, Editor.

3

Meadville, Pa., 1887.

A copy of the Trib-Rep reached me to-day & Pennsylvania is for Blaine, I.e.; the politicians are running the Blaine racket, and the laws got to educate the people
 up to our standards;
 hence I am obliged to make haste. Merely I believe the cause of Mr Lincoln and I am doubtful on Blaine and that cause was fully exposed by me in 1884 before and

Editorial Rooms

- of -

The Tribune-Republican,

DAILY AND WEEKLY.

W. R. ANDREWS, Editor.

Meadville, Pa., 1887.

After the Convention ^{in the Year} ~~of 1872~~ ^{of 1872}

I am prepared to accept any nomination made and to do my best for the G. O. P., but I prefer to put my best against a success of further violence of breaking a storm well!
In other words I favor the policy of nominating a man we can elect rather than to put up a man who has got to be defended from the day he is nominated ^{until} the clear up the heads of know you are a big man, but a few articles like the one which appeared in the Leader constitute valuable evidence of unshakable belief that you are ^{firmly} ~~the~~

~~Yours~~
Yours truly,
J. P. Buchanan