

TENT-COTTAGE:
...CHAUTAUQUA-N.Y.

Friday a.m.

Many thanks, my dear Mrs. Fongee, for our delightful evening
at "Thorheim".

We reached the gates
in safety, plunged again into the whirl of the assembly, slept "the sleep of the just", and awakened to get tired again. So life goes.

do want to be in heaven when he wants for the first time on that shore,

Thomas Carlyle and

Matthew Arnold.

Yours,

J. W. Vincent.

We were charmed
with your dear old mother, who has a
head of her own, and
with your new friend Mrs. Warner, and with your older one Prof. —
also for the spelling of a German name!

Tell his Honor, the Judge, that I don't want to die sooner —
than I must, but I
