Dear Mrs Tongue

"Tis sweet to be remembered by those we love", This was my first thought on receiving the book on Wednesday of last week - How kind of you to remember me in this way, You know how much pleasure I will have in reading it on account of its author - I have been so busy that I have not read it yet but will this week - Many thanks for sending it to me - It was a surprise & a pleasure - How I would like to see you once more - I hope you are enjoying good health - I am very well & able to meet my daily duties - The past year has been a very busy one - & the New Year opens with plenty to do for some months, I am so glad to hear that the Judge has been able to visit & hope health & long life & happiness may be yours - Do you ever come this way or are you so buried in Chayville that you do not leave it for the noise & bustle of our cities - If you do ever this way through - I would be glad to see you at our little home here or I would come to see you if you let me know when & where you may be this way, We are very well & very happy here - The children are very interesting & keep the house lively all the time,

With love to you & kindest regards to the Judge & Miss Lottie & wishing you a Happy New Year

Ever yours sincerely
Wm. C. Armstrong
