Judge W. W. Burgee,
c/o Lippincott's Magazine
Philadelphia, Pa.
Dear Sir:

We take the liberty of writing to inquire if your engagements will admit of your contributing occasionally to The American, which will appear in March. The policy of the paper may be summarized in the phrase "American for the American," and details will be given you in a prospectus which will soon be sent to you. We are prepared to compete with magazine rates and should be pleased to have you send us stories, essays or political editorials. Regarding our financial standing we beg to refer you to the 2^d Nat'l Bank, New York, the Commercial Nat'l Bank, Chicago, and the commercial agencies.

Very truly yours
The American Publishing Co.
