

"There must be an international copyright arrangement. England has done her part, and I am confident the time is not far distant when America will do hers. It becomes the character of a great country, firstly, because it is justice; secondly, because without it you never can have, and keep, a literature of your own."—CHARLES DICKENS
(from a Speech).

Boston, July 7 1888.

Dear Madam

Your covering etc.
acknowledged recd:

We supposed we had notified you that we had been served with papers by C. H. Blair notifying us that any payments made by us to you would be made at our own risk & peril & that he should look to us for payment of same.

The notice was served
last Sept

Wm. T. Roberts
Roberts Bros.

Such service is not being
"enjoined on trustees", as you stated. Those are technical terms and have a specific meaning.
There is no need for the Judge to go to Boston for that. The assignment to Mr Skinner
was made for some time before the notice to you and without knowledge of any claim
on Mr Skinner's part.
You have only to pay to him.
If you want a bond of indemnity you can have it.
