Chicago, Jan. 10th, 1888

Mrs. E. K. Tourgee,
Mayville, N.Y.

Dear Madam, -

Your favor received. I do not think I will be able to make the engagement at Washington, Pa. Nothing has, as yet been done. I am in some doubt as to whether a paying trip can be made in Feb. and March, but I think there ought to be several engagements secured, and bunched together. I had quite a long talk with the Judge with reference to his new lecture, when he was in Chicago and it seems to us that quite a list of engagements might be secured on the terms and plan that we talked of.

Yours truly,

N. L. Slayton
