

Alamo, Madroville Dec. 18 1868.

Dear Mrs. Tompkins

A thousand thanks for your copy (Postal) by this evening mail, and ten thousand more for the letter copies after your kindness, and my pains left for the East.
I so bless it, the letter was just the change I needed, I have submitted my communication on the medals, and felt like going to see the Judge to explain and vindicate. This timely letter fills the Bill and I am happy. Do tell the Judge that by its perusal I feel that my petitions as well as spiritual strength is renewed.

As I walked to the office for my mail I took with me three copies of the Living-ton (Ms) Register which you will see is somewhat insignificant. You must not spare our love about it but I got the

The Editor I can hardly see how much the ac-cuse was after those weeks correspondence his issue of the 12th inst in the month.

The editorials I wrote myself were sent all of them, even if there is any thing wrong in them the responsibility is upon me. I should like the Judge's opinion of the plunge as well as your own, What would say of you through 1650 copies had been sent to do among Newspapers in the States, leaving out Ohio (Sherman), Maine (Blaine) Iowa (Allison) Penn.
(Blaine within State) &

I have had this Register in Framing since the 1st of December, and 3 weeks ago made an arrangement for this paper.

I this morning rec'd a letter from the Editor of the Altos Telegraph (Daily & Weekly) saying he had Expresses me yesterday 100 copies of the Daily containing an editorial I sent him a week ago cutting of Charles Emory Smith interview of ten days ago, which I will Send you a copy of inpen the receipt of the pub-

-age, and if you feel unpleasant send a copy At the Judge, and this letter as well if you please, and a copy of Register,

Col Geo R. Davis of Chicago the Treasurer of the Court of Cook was blabbing to a Deputee which found place in the Chicago Journal, a Liberal paper, but which now I fancy I took the knives out of it in a dissection that I made of it and sent to the Parkfield Gazette to appear no an editorial piece it will appear I think in that paper tomorrow, and if it does you will get a copy. I cannot ever get the letter of the Judge; but think under his restriction will just how I don't yet know, but will find out soon.

Thank the Judge we are bound to win - this sort of his will bring them down - they are winged already - Always glad to hear from you or the Judge. Sincerely Mrs Emma K. Louisa. I remain Dear
