Dear Albion

Your letter and card both received, and many thanks. Mr Foice has made arrangements for trying the case on Monday he would be willing and glad to talk with you. he said you might make some any seeming neglect and when you can come and see me if you do not come at this time, let me know when you decide to come at any time and I will meet you at the station. I feel dear Albin that you are the oldest and dearest of my old friends.

Kind regards to all yours in Love. Ellen.

P.S. If you leave New York Sunday eve you will get in Cambridge Monday at 6 or 6 o'clock. go to the Messenger House I will meet you there. should come Sunday at 11 telegraph to James Mayberry Postmaster.

Suggestions that would help him, but you must do as you feel, in regard to coming I would be more than glad to see you. you know me well enough to know it was far no ostentatious or want of regard for you the reason I did not inform you of my suit. I heard last summer your health was very poor and knowing something of the care and trouble you both had been called to pass through. I felt it would be selfish in me to trouble you with my affairs. now please forgive me for
