Chicago, Jan 14th, 1888

Mrs. E. K. Tourgee,
Mayville, N.Y.
Dear Madam, -

By telegraphing to Beloit on receipt of your letter, I succeeded in effecting a change of date, so that Judge Tourgee will now appear in Beloit March 3rd. They had got out their tickets costing $1.50, and will have to get them printed over again, the Judge can pay that when he gets there. I have sent the name of the party who has contracted for the lecture, perhaps he is the man you refer to as being an old acquaintance of the Judge. I will try to secure other engagements in connection with Beloit.

Yours truly,

H. L. Slayton

"Local" means Hotel Bills for Lecturers and Readers, Home, Carriage and Baggage Transfer.

Cash order for printing must be accompanied by Post Office Money Order to save C.O.D. charges.
