NEW YORK

Jan'y. 21. 1888

Dear Mrs. Tourgée:

Messrs. Charles L. Webster & Co. have asked for information about ~~the~~
A. J. Sage, the author of a poem published in The Continent — "The Violin" — his full name, where born and whether now alive.

If anyone knows anything about the man (or woman) it would be you.

Glad to hear from the Judge that you are well and happy.
I suppose just now you are snowed up.

All well hereabouts.

Faithfully Yours,

H. W. B. St.
