

Eric. Pa., Feb. 11. 1888.

Saturday Morning.

My dear Emma:

I was in the market this morning saw a man with a load of cabbage. He was from Waterford and has a supply yet on hand said he would supply you with all you want at 3¢ per pound. His ^{address} name is

D. W. Little Waterford

Pa.

He said he could express these at Waterford and they would go by way of Cory. If you want any you can order direct from

Since you should you do so order soon.

We seemed to know the bridge road was pleased at the possibility of sending you some cabbage.

In haste
Love to all

Wegier.
