

3349

Dear

July 18th 1889.

My dear Judge Sawyer

This month some form of Lecture at Edinburgh has been going on and from your lecture some copy will be made. I am writing to you apologizing to express my regret of the article.

Will wish you to write -

Yours faithfully,
Loring!

We shall win.