Hon. A. W. Tinslee:

My dear Friend, -

I remember in one of your editorials in "Our Continent" a few years ago you spoke of some histories in use in southern schools in which the Confederate leaders are highly eulogized and comparatively little said about the leaders of the union side. Can you tell me what history or histories you had in mind and who publishes them? I have seen the one published by Lippincott and did not like it. If you will go to the trouble to inform me, I shall be grateful. Yours truly,
W. W. [unclear]
