The Inter Ocean.

Chicago, July 25 1888

My dear Judge Briggs, I got snarled at the people of this city and came here to use the Club in the manner you indicated and on the class address, and if I don't stir up the animals, may I be damned - Excuse profanity, but I can't do justice to the subject and the morals without a departure from morals, for the fact finds you don't know any thing more about morals than Bill Ryan said Congress said about Religion -

I will send you a Journal of the evening of this City and you will see in

The Inter Ocean.

Chicago, 188

a Springs a letter from Mrs. Cook, C. M. Clay & others,
 It was written to me and I sent a copy written copy to Station or Reboled, and perhaps to you -

I will write particulars after I hear from you, and get home -

I hope that you had a right I would leave tonight - Shall not arrive tomorrow night,

Friday in tomorrow
 but I shall gently attack Managing Editor
 in ten minutes

Faithfully

Yours

Yes will I tell you -
