Chicago, Feb. 25th, 1888

Mrs. E. K. Tourgee,
Mayville, N.Y.,

Dear Madam, -

I received a telegram this morning from Sioux Falls, Ia. offering $50 for Judge Tourgee for March 9th, and unless I hear from you to the contrary by telegram, I will book him for that date at that place. It will almost be so much money clear, so long as he is going in that section of country. If Mitchell should accept your offer for March 9th, it could be changed by telegraph to the 10th, or Monday the 12th, or possibly the 8th. I think he could make Mitchell for the 8th.

We have out some more offers for the Judge in the northwest & that section, and in Minnisota, hoping to make the trip, to a certain extent a paying one, although the prices are not up to the usual standard.

Since writing the above your last letter received. We will do our best to secure additional engagements.

Yours truly,

H. L. Slayton
