New York. Feb 29 1888

My dear Judge

Your pathetic appeal moves me & I catch on.

Not to do so now would be to confess the obtuseness of a foreign born. If the die be not already cast it shall be, and when the "American Historical Novels" are removed from our shelves "The Story of an Epoch" will take their places. That is to say, we have some votes on hand that we don't want to pitch into the North river, but we will not bind any more with old the stamp.

Trusting this announcement will be all that is required to fill life with a spring freshet & make your days and path those of pleasantness and peace

I am as ever truly
Geo. S. Hulbert
