Late Wednesday Night.

My Dear Judge

Since writing you last night, I have been thinking about this letter of yours of the 19th ult, and I am of opinion that another reading him one which would have been appropriate before Blinn's Florence speech should be prepared and this communication given to the public was what would have been urged against him and his gang had Blinn not left the course, or rather had he been overruled, do not you think so? That is too gross, too contemptuous and explicit, too true to be his under a brush. And I mention this because McCly writes me he is for Lincoln?

Sutton in his Press of yesterday Monday has an elegant article taken from the Union Daily Tel. on Lincoln, on 2<sup>d</sup> page, top of last column. The Press is bound to be a success in N. H. I think.
