

1453 Mass Ave
Washington D.C.
March 4/58

Hon Able Tourger
Mayville N.Y.

My Dear Judge Tourger,

Can you throw any light, either of law, gospel or Common Sense, upon my rights and privileges in regard to "The House that fell Briel" or my articles, "All Out Doors" that were published in "Our Continents"? "Lill"

I know ~~the latter~~ is published by Fords, Howard & Hulbert, because they send me at long and irregular intervals checks for copyright that amount to not more than five or six dollars a year. Of course this is very unsatisfactory, but I deem to be helpless. And?

The other articles I always intended to publish in book form but it will hardly pay to redraw all the illustrations,

Last fall H. W. B. Howard wrote me that he owned the plates and might perhaps sell them to me if I wd agree to take them off his hands at a price wh he named. Which I did, but he then found obstacles in the way of a transcription and from week to week has put the matter off for six weeks or more. Can you tell me anything about these plates?

I was prompted to write to you by reading your recent letter in the Springfield Republican concerning East Lincoln and all I heartily agree. As I am very glad to hear and more glad were to vigorous advance,

With kindest regards I am Sincerely yours
E. H. Spaulding