

Am. March 5 / 1888.

Dear Mrs. Sawyer
 Your welcome letter of this morning is at hand. It contents have been carefully considered, I realize all you say of the situation, I am glad that the Judge will see Mr. Busby while out. If he and I were enabled financially to consult upon the proper course to pursue and follow in our "L." dominion would be assured inside of one Lunar month, beyond all doubt. As it is, I am not enabled to succeed or fail in the attempt.

I hope we will have things shaped in our favor before 30 days in a way that will give us some assistance, and if that be so Judge P. will know it soon, and be a shaver - He is the only one I know who, and with a cent has been furnished one for my thing, shame, shame in this impure Christmas by Judge

I. as "Smith Chicago Job Journal", With you, my faith in the affairs of this world is but little short of yutatism, but I am drawn on my way in a higher faith that encompasses Special Providence, as the name of Omnipotence, an Overruling Providence, and then work, and hope on.

I know that an L. woman is the proper thing to be done, and therefore believe it will take place under God.

But it is late, and I will say Good night.

Sincerely
Your friend

Edward Felt
