My dear wife:

Yes well - It is well you did not get Canton. Could not have made it. Go through by Buffalo and Mayville tonight. It is not the shortest but the surest simplest and easiest. I will let you have $100. tonight but doubt if you would better pay McKenzie anything. You know I have to pay Steiner on the note soon.

You would better send Roberts a copy of the contract with Steiner, and tell them to make returns to him with a copy to you on the copyright, keeping the power chase and sale of the books separate as that is your personal matter. In other words, tell them to keep the sale and copyright accounts distinct as the copyright account is for Skinner - the other for you.

I am very well but was awful tired last night am very sorry I cannot stop off to see you but hope to get back from Somerset if McClure does not send for me.

Yours
