

120 Wacker St.

New York, Jan 5, 1889

Dear Mrs. Fougée:

Happy New Year!

Can you oblige me
by appending to the titles of the "Too True" stories the names of the writers?
I want particularly to know which is the E. P. Roe story - but should like them all. I give the titles further on.

I may have a little legal matter to be attended to in Buffalo - Is my old friend, Mr. Moot,

a good man to take charge of it?

I was in Philadelphia last week, and learned from Mrs. Neilson that you were expected there soon. If so, I shall probably see something of you,
as we are having our books made in Phila.
& I have occasionally
to go there.

I went to the Lib office yesterday to see
about the "Letters"; but as my friend Lyman

was absent, through whom I shall make my approaches, I deferred the matter until I could see him.

Faithfully Yours,

A. W. B. Howard

The Merry Marquis

He was Never Known to Smile

A Matter of Fact Fellow

Who Hesitates is Lost

A Hard Lesson

Miss Beresford's Mystery

The Romance of Anthony

A Lady of Insworth County

On the Stroke of the Clock.