EDITOR OF BELFORD'S MAGAZINE.
384 & 386 BROADWAY,

NEW YORK, 5th June - 1889

Col Abner G. Tourgee

My dear Sir:—

If not drawing too much upon your valuable time, will you please inform me what works of prose fiction, you like best. I do not ask you what you consider the more perfect, but those works that please you most.

By complying with this request, you will entertain the public, so much interested in your own efforts, and confer a favor on,

Yours sincerely,

Donn Piatt
