Dear Mrs Youngé,

I send you a copy of Judge Youngé's, which I hope you will find tolerably correct. After making what emendations you judge fit kindly hand it to my daughter, Susan Hunter, Sub-Editor of Bark News. You will find her on the fourth story in Mr. Gilham's (A. A. A.) apartment.

I am very respectfully, Yours,

James Hunter

In such notices we commonly add: - In (?) he married ^{s.c.} (do and so). Will you kindly insert year and name ^{your} and place of residence before marriage?
