

1257 G. 19th Phila.; Jan. 19/89

Dear Mr. George,

I have just now received a note from Mr. Lamberton, Editor of Supplement to Encyc. Britannica for the Messrs. Hubbard, saying that they will be glad to send you a proof of the article on your husband as soon as it is in type. I am almost certain I gave them your address in the note accompanying the article, but I shall make sure of this first time I am in the office.

I have no idea when the proof will be ready, for although I daresay I have written over a hundred articles for the work within the last few months, I have never seen a proof. But then there was none of them on my wife.

With thanks for the trouble you took

work in correcting my scrolls, I am,

Very respectfully, Yours,

James Amster
