My Darling:

Before I was out of bed this morning came another letter — three to one place! You are outdoing yourself in kindness.

I am as glad as can be at your happiness. What hurts me is that you should have been unhappy. Don't you see? Don't let anything I may write depress you. I will do my very best in every way and see if we cannot get some happiness out of life yet.

You should have received by this time the following drafts —

From Houghton — 100

" Ishpeming 75

" Newyette 175

Banking — 350

I will enclose one for $150 — making $500. Belvidere and Excelsior I will return.

My cold troubled me very greatly last night, I had to stop and cough — one of my terrific quarters — two or three times and when it was over had to cough for about a half hour straight before leaving the church. Very curiously I met no body I knew, but such a lot of old "Contract" subs. who were perfect devotees.

I did the best I could with my cold but even if I shall have a hard time tonight —

You can hardly imagine what a relief it was to hear a good report of Foster's eyes, I have worried about them a great deal. I hope she will have no more trouble with them. I have no doubt you enjoyed Mary Anderson and probably had a pleasant visit with Daisy.

I do not think I can come there for my off time or that I had better. I must work you know very hard and there is no place like Udayville for that. Besides, I will save $25 or $30 at least by going there and we can not afford to waste that amount. Then too, I could not stand it. I would jump over Niagara if you asked me but do not think I could stand that torture.

You forgot to enclose Clayton's letter so I do not know what he wrote. I only want to keep him from trotting me a thousand miles for $50. That is all I am after. He agreed to find out and let me know what he could do by Jan. 1st and simply did nothing. Well, I will see him tomorrow and do the best I can in the premises. I am afraid

my cold will knock me out
at Exonston but I shall take a steady lay at it in the Grand Pacific and make
what I can out of it.

God bless you. I have lost that Richmond Dispatch extract and am in tribulation on an account of it. I want it so bad that I don't know ~~what~~ I shall do about
it. Love to our darling -

Yours
Wm
