House of Representatives U. S.,

Washington, D. C., Jan 25, 1889.

Dear Mrs. Lougee,

Your letter received, and would have been answered before, but I went down to Raleigh last Saturday, and did not get back until yesterday.

The Hotels will all be crowded on the 4th, and about the only chance will be to get rooms in some private house. Will this suit you? If so, I will look out, and see what can be done.

We have rooms on East Capitol Street in a private house, and find it about as comfortable as a Hotel.

Very truly,
Yours,

John Nichols
