

JEFFERSON CLUB,
WASHINGTON, D.C.

My dear Mrs Tangee:

I was really very glad to get your letter - and will do my best - to assist in bringing you here for the inauguration. I write but a line tonight to tell you how much pleasure your letter gave me (I thought you had all decided to forget - me) and to say that I have been making inquiries about quarters for you - then I am without success. Everything seems to be engaged. However, I have one or two sheet anchors left and within the coming week I will write you what I may. The night of the ball will be one of the very busiest nights of the year for news-papers, but we can manage to give Lodie a glimpse of it by hook or crook. My love goes to the Judge and with every affectionate assurance to yourself,

As ever warmly and faithfully

Frank
