Mrs. A. H. Turgie,

Dear Madame:

The amount due Sturton on the Judge's books to Jan 1st is $340⁶⁹; the amt due McCummings on "Black Ice" is $223⁶⁵; and the debit balance of the "Caesar" ac is reduced from $217⁵⁷ to $167⁰³. If you wish detailed statements of these acs we will ~~make~~ send them at once.

When we were about to publish "Black Ice" I

Clair wrote us protesting against the payment of the proceeds to anyone but the syndicate which published "Caesar". We had quite an argument with him, but came to no definite understanding.

He has made no reply to a recent letter from us asking him whether or not he agreed with our views in the matter.

Yours truly,
Jords Howard & Hulbert
