Dansville, N. Y., 13 Feb 1889.

Dear Judge

You will have to approach me with circumspection now for I'm a Board of Trade.

I wish simply to inform you that in tomorrow's Advertiser will appear an able article on a distinguished writer & orator, ^{that} I do not know where to reach him as he is a wanderer on the face of the earth. If this reaches you through your last address I shall wonder at it. But here goes a paper will follow tomorrow.

Don't forget, dear Judge, your promise to write me from the paradise. But write me before then, too. And when I can do anything for you even by the sacrificing of that father who is "not so good looking," why, commend me. The boy is in Washington now looking for something.

If this doesn't reach you let me know.

With love from my family & myself,

I am as always & always yours

A. D. Durnell
