Mr. Albion W. Tourge

Dear Sir:—

The Young Folks' Letter Bureau has just been established for the purpose of furnishing each week to first-class newspapers an interesting letter for boys between the ages of 12 and 20, containing a short story, sketch or a descriptive article of practical information.

We desire to have these letters written by prominent writers I should be pleased to have you among our contributors. The choice of subjects is entirely optional with you. I prefer descriptive articles, but anything you may care to write about, if it in your opinion would be interesting to boys, will be acceptable.

Please let me know at your convenience if you will write a letter of this kind for us, so that we may use your name in our announcements, and also what your terms would be for an article of about 1500 words in length, and I will write you in a short time when I desire the article.

All our contributors will be paid promptly upon receipt of manuscript.

Yours respectfully
Frank L. Farnell
Editor.
