Chicago, Feb. 15th, 1889

Dear Judge Tourgee,—

Your two favors came duly to hand, and in reply would say that Mr. Fuller has visited points between here and Ogden or Great Salt Lake. It is impossible to determine definitely as yet just what the outcome will be. He has found it pretty hard work to make ~~ix~~ any positive sales this side of the Rocky Mountains, but there are negotiations pending for dates. We do not think it possible to give positive information, that is — something that can be depended on, for several weeks to come. The drop in the boom out there has of course greatly injured the lecture business, and perhaps ruined it, but we are in the ~~best~~ now, and we want to look the ground over, and give it a thorough trial. Mr. Fuller will open up a correspondence from San Francisco, and will send out a large number of circulars with letters.

We have heard no change in the price of tickets to California. Mr. Fuller bought his ticket, as he told you, for $124. or $124.50, round trip. Don't believe they are going to raise the price, still they might. If you have any instructions or suggestions to make, send them on.

Yours truly,

Slayton Lyceum Bureau
