Library of Congress,

Washington, Feb 19, 1889.

Sir:

In reply to your communication of Feb 15

I have to advise you that the entry you refer to in 1886 reads

"Epistles to John or Letters to a King"
whereas the books claimed by you read
"Letters to a King."

The two copies have been credited on the 1886 entry and the matter may now be considered as settled.

Very respectfully,

Librarian of Congress.

Mr. L. K. Tourgee.
