House of Representatives U. S.,

Washington, D. C., Feb. 22, 1889.

Mrs. A. W. Tourgie,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Madam:

Your letter received. Wife and myself had made arrangements to entertain some North Carolina friends on the night of the inauguration, instead of going to the Ball.

I will see you after your arrival in the city, and perhaps we can make some arrangements to accommodate all.

There will be a great many people here from North Carolina and I will be compelled to pay some little attention to them. I know you will fully appreciate the situ-uation, but I want to assure you that it will be my pleasure to serve you in any way

I can.

I would be delighted to see the Judge here.
Truly yours

John Nichols
