

Washington D. C.

March 6-

My Dear Mrs Tougee:

Enclosed
postal note for three ($3) dollars, amount due you.

I regret exceedingly the annoyance caused you but my apology is Inauguration week and sleep.

The driver, who took us to the Ball, concluded his somewhat remarkable career by driving off without leaving his number or receiving his money. Not being a member of the 'cab' association no return check could be had from him.

What proved to be our second diver, I thought at time of engagement was our first and deemed a happy solution at hand.

My error was discovered too late to inform you that night but intended to send word by my father the next morning but alas - there was no morning to me since I slept through.

Uncertainty as to when you would be at home, sight-seeing with friends and looking up college friends visiting the city, all forced me to leave to do what I ought have attended to myself.

Asking indulgence for my neglect, thanking you for your kind chaperonage and with my best wishes to your daughter, I am Very sincerely

A. J. Fisher.
