Rochester, N. Y., Mich 15 1889.

Dear Brother:

The Fifty-sixth Annual Convention of the Psi Upsilon Fraternity will be held with the Upsilon Chapter, on 16th and 17th of May next.

We have been asked by the Executive Council to have it this year, although it is out of our turn, and we will not have another convention in Rochester until our semi-centennial, twenty years from now.

As you are aware, the expenses attendant on a convention are quite heavy, and fall for the most part on the Chapter giving it. The last convention that met here was a remarkably successful one, and we expect to have this one equally so. In order to do this, we must ask a liberal subscription from our Alumni.

We expect to have some very good speakers here, and can assure you of a royal good time if you will be with us then.

Awaiting an early reply, we remain,

Very fraternally yours,

W. E. Witherspoon,

W. N. Cogswell,

P. R. McPhail,

N. T. Killip,

Committee.

Address, W. E. Witherspoon,

40 State St., Rochester, N. Y.
