Dear Madam

Your extremely kind and sympathetic note of the 13th arrived duly, but I felt incapable of writing till now.

Besides the terrible bereavement, we have lost the sole prop. of our old days. Never did a fortnight pass during the last four years that we did not receive from him ample means for our sustenance.

With kind regards from Mr. O'Brien and Evelyn

Yours respectfully,

W. D. O'Brien
