J Am.

My dear wife:

I have nothing to say and no time to say it.
Am just finishing the Agrostoides
to send away by the mail.

I have heard no more from Shayten. The pavon-flower has two beautiful blossoms and about 25 buds almost ready to open.

The weather has turned colder and is already today. I am sorry you are in that horrid Typhoid city. You must look out.

Yours truly

W. W. Sawyer
