My dear Sir,

I hope that the Buffalo Law School has not passed entirely out of your mind through any neglect on our part to keep you informed of its existence. The members of the Senior Class are looking forward to the commencement of lectures on legal studies, which they have been promised from you. Can you now inform me when you can next conveniently come up to Buffalo to attend progress? Our lecture class about the middle of May, and you can have your choice of any one of the courses before them. Our lectures are given in the beautiful building of the Buffalo Library, and you might find it convenient to make use of the library during your stay here, if you can do, as it offers an excellent place to work, and very good materials to work with.

Hoping to hear from you soon.

I am, your truly
