

April 4, 1884

Dear Judge Fouquier:

I thank you for the additional correction contained in your note of the 2<sup>d</sup> inst.

No, the Forum does not receive any letters of the character of the one sent to you by "H. H." I think that it is generally understood that such communications would not influence a periodical in the least. People ought to know as well that writers will not be intimidated by them, especially a writer who has shown his courage so often as you have.

I should like to let Mr.
Cable see the copy of the letter if you do not object.

Yours very truly,

L. S. Metcalf.
