

Thorheim

April 6th 1889.

My Beloved: I enclose a letter to Wetzel and one from him for your amusement. Also one to Haffland, my "cussing" correspondent. By the way, I think I know him and have set a searcher after him. Please copy this in duplicate; send one to Wetzel = and return the other to me. I am surprised that the article makes so little stir. I think the nation has become calloused — what the scripture terms "hardened their hearts," on the subject.

It is curious what Bain says about Frank. You saw what the Byglunden said about him I suppose.
I meant to have sent it to Mr. O'Brien but had only the one here. If you do not get that I will have one sent from the office - or perhaps you had better write Buskey about it. Never mind it. Come to look at it, I find there is no need to do so. I return Buskey's letter -

I don't know who the shipping cost editor is - Woodworth, I suppose. Have written letters nearly all day. There were a lot of them to answer. Nothing more from Stuyton - Minneapolis 24" -

Yours -
Albin

Sat. Morning - I take this out just to say je vous aime.
I am awful homesome for a sight of you and am half a mind to order you home by telegraph just for a sight of your face. I think I shall have to go down to the farm school for a couple of lectures next week. I don't see any other way to get them in.
Good bye.

Albion.
