

Thorheim

April 8th 1889

My dear wife: I have finally got the other story ready except the conclusion which I must rewrite today.
Then I think I will write the other and send it on. My Byelandia from this week is practically complete. I shall have to go to Buffalo I suppose on Friday and stay until Sunday morning for the lectures there.

I wish you would write to Mr O'Brien about that book of his.
I am going about to have it printed and now if I have to put my name on the title page as col-laborer. As soon as I get back from the West I am going to come on — perhaps in time for the exhibition May 2 — and see him and some publishers and get the work in hand

I have now more time to write, ~~and~~ Angie left this morning, which is back a hour to look in

Yours
Albin

Enclosed find letter from Angie to my reply.
