

CHARLES J. GOOCH,
PATENT ATTORNEY,
ST. CLOUD BUILDING,
Lock Box 76, WASHINGTON, D. C.

13th April 1889

Hon^{ble} W. Fougée
Mayville, N.Y.

Dear Sir,

Cannot you, by this time, spare me some money
at least on a/c?

I have waited very long for the fulfilment of your promise - not patiently but resignedly. Now I think you certainly ought to remit me as much as $100. on a/c. I shall expect
it. Am I to be again disappointed?

Truly yours,

Charles Gooch

I still wait orders in re
your Harness & Motor cases
